Price leadership has always been secondary to brilliant, enduring quality in HUDSON'S great public acknowledgment as the "World's Greatest Day." The attraction of amazing price advantage made possible by its position as world's largest producer of 6-cylinder cars merely puts in the reach of added thousands the qualities, comfort, and performance for which the HUDSON Super Six is famous. A demonstration will be gladly arranged at any time you may prefer.

TRADE HOPES.

LOCAL CONFIDENCE INCREASING.

MERCHANTS ARRIVE FROM CANTON.

FURTHER EXTRACTS.

With the lifting of the ban on Hongkong-Canton shipping there is a strong hope entertained locally that Hongkong's import and export trade will soon show a marked revival.

At the moment there is still a feeling of uncertainty, as is somewhat natural in view of the long period of stagnation caused by the 15-months embargo, but prominent business men see every reason to hope for an early revival of inter-traditional activity.

Signs are apparent of growing confidence in shipping circles. The s.s. Fatehan brought over 900 passengers from Canton, yesterday afternoon, a large number being of the merchant class, evidently visiting Hongkong with a view to resumption of business relations with local firms. On leaving again this morning, there were a few more passengers than has been the case for several months.

The Chinese shipping companies are preparing to resume services as soon as possible.

Passengers and shippers are advised by the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Company that, commencing on Thursday, and until further notice, the steamer Lungshan will berth for a short period at the Company's wharf in Canton.

KUOMINTANG STATEMENT.

The communique issued yesterday by the Canton Information Bureau contained some extracts from the declarations made by the Kuomintang and the Strike Committee in regard to the calling off of the boycott. The full text of these have now been published.

The Kuomintang's declaration contains the following observations, which are of sufficient interest to reproduce:—

"To-day we are lifting the anti-British Boycott. From to-day on we shall use the proceeds of a Special Tax on import and export for the purpose of relieving you from your economic suffering and to enable you within a reasonable period of time to find employment.

"Why are we giving up the policy of a direct boycott and blockade of Hongkong? And does it mean that from to-day on, the anti-imperialist struggle ceases? These are the two questions which must be clearly answered so that every revolutionary patriot in China and every revolutionary friend abroad will understand.

"The giving up of the policy of direct boycott and blockade of Hongkong does not only mean the stopping of the anti-imperialist struggle, but it means its intensification on a national scale, until the independence of China is completely secured.

"In the active anti-imperialist struggle, Kwangtung has been the Vanguard for 15 months, but although we have inflicted tremendous losses upon the enemy, it is impossible for Kwangtung alone to defeat the enemy completely. To secure complete success, all the provinces must participate equally. This means that the Anti-imperialist front must be extended throughout China. Until now our country, with the exception of Kwangtung, has been under the domination of the militarists. How then could we extend the active anti-imperialist front? It was impossible.

Several provinces have now been freed from the yoke of the hunting dogs of imperialism; still most of the provinces remain under the domination of militarists, and it will take some time before these militarists are overthrown. But even the newly freed provinces are not yet completely in the hands of the Revolution; the

BANK ACCOUNTANT SENTENCED.

END OF SENSATIONAL BOMBAY TRIAL.

IMPRISONMENT TERMS.

Bombay, Oct. 12.

In the High Court, Llewellyn Evans, former Chief accountant of the Bombay branch of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, was found guilty on two charges of criminal breach of trust, and the falsification of accounts in respect of Government securities valued at 510,000 rupees.

Evans pleaded not guilty, but was sentenced to terms of four, one and two years rigorous imprisonment.

Other charges in respect of sums of R.10,000 and R.20,000 will be taken up.

Later.

NOMINAL SENTENCES.

Evans pleaded guilty to the charges of criminal breach of trust in respect of the amounts of R.10,000 and R.20,000, but not guilty to the charge of falsifying the accounts.

The latter charges were withdrawn by the representative of the Crown, who stated that he would not press the charges on which the accused pleaded guilty if the sentences thereon would not be concurrent with the sentences already passed.

Judge thereupon sentenced the accused to one day's simple imprisonment on each charge of criminal breach of trust.—Reuter.

LIVELY POLITICS.

BATTLE OF INKWELLS.

Berlin, Oct. 12.

The debate on the Hohenzollern Settlement Bill provoked unparalleled Communist fury in the Prussian Diet.

The sitting was suspended five times owing to uproar and opprobrious epithets, and was finally closed in disorder, necessitating police supervision, after display of fistuffs, in which inkwells, books, tables, and chairs were hurled. Three members were injured, including the Vice President, Herr Garnich, who was hit with an inkwell and spattered from head to foot. Ten Communists were forcibly ejected.—Reuter.

COAL STRIKE.

MEN STILL DRIFTING BACK.

London, Oct. 12.

The acceleration of the drift back of miners to work was indicated in to-day's returns, showing that 217,000 miners were working, an increase of 19,474 as compared with yesterday.—Reuter.

SAFETYMEN'S DECISION.

London, Oct. 12.

The Delegate Conference of Safetymen held in London has unanimously reaffirmed the decision to remain at work.—Reuter.

AMBASSADORIAL CHANGES.

LORD D'ABERNON'S SUCCESSOR.

Rugby, Oct. 12.

It is expected that Sir Ronald Lindsay, who is succeeding Lord D'Abernon as British Ambassador in Berlin, will take up that post early next month.—British Wireless.

LABOUR POLICY.

MORE CONFERENCE SCENES.

OUTSPOKEN SPEECHES.

Rugby, Oct. 12.

There were more animated scenes when the annual conference of the Labour Party was continued at Margate to-day.

Mr. Rhys Davies, Member of Parliament, moved a resolution protesting against the manner in which the Government had handled the coal crisis and expressing the opinion that the deep-rooted and urgent problems of the mining industry could only be settled by the adoption of a scheme of nationalisation.

This resolution was strongly attacked by a number of speakers on the ground that it gave no practical support to the miners.

MORE "KICKS."

Mr. Kirkwood, a prominent member of the Labour Party's left wing, wanted a resolution with some "kick" in it, which would encourage the brave men and women in the coalfields. What the miners now required, he said, was money. He asked for a levy on all affiliated Unions.

Mr. Horner, Delegate of the South Wales miners, declared: "We don't want your empty resolution. If you would help us, let us have money and an embargo."

PLAIN TRUTHS.

Mr. J. H. Thomas, Railwaymen's Leader, who was Colonial Secretary in the late Labour Government, said he would tell the Conference why a levy on other Trades Unions to help the miners was impossible. At this moment there were 45,000 railwaymen who had never gone back to work since the general strike of last May. In addition 200,000 railwaymen were only working three days a week. The Engineers Union was now taking a levy for its own men. In the Boilermakers' Union 45 per cent. of the men were unemployed. As to an embargo on foreign coal, Mr. Thomas declared that the resolution recently passed by the International Miners' Federation at Brussels favouring the prevention of the export of coal to Great Britain was only a piece of paper. It was no use to deceive the miners by talk about an embargo which could not be realised.

Mr. Thomas's plain truths were received with angry shouts, and much interruption by the extremist section of the conference. Mr. Ben Tillet, leader of the Transport Workers, reinforced Mr. Thomas's arguments. He said the transport workers could do nothing. They had spent already £1,000,000 in the miners' interest. They were £500,000 in debt. Eighty thousand men in the Transport Workers' Union were unemployed and 100,000 were under-employed.

LEVY IMPOSSIBLE.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, Leader of the Labour Party, emphasised the impossibility of a Trade Union levy. He said the situation was not adequately realised. There had been a consultation of Union Leaders as to the best means of helping the miners and he had been perfectly appalled at the unemployment in each Union. The industrial situation had to be faced. The resolution before the Conference definitely committed the Parliamentary Labour Party to the nationalisation of mines and he hoped the Conference would pass it and thus give some encouragement to the miners. It was the best thing that the conference could do now. The miners' fight would only begin on a new plane when the present crisis was over. That new plane was the House of Commons and the new policy was nationalisation of the industry.

Mr. MacDonald's statements evoked some boos. Eventually, the resolution was adopted by an overwhelming majority of 3,315,000 votes against 210,000.—British Wireless.

KWANGTUNG "ANTI-RED" MOVEMENT.

NGAI BONG-PING ACCEPTS LEADERSHIP.

ANTI-RUSSIAN AIMS.

According to Chinese reports, General Ngai Bong-ping, formerly a commander in the Cantonese Army, has formally accepted leadership of the anti-Bolshevik or "anti-Red" movement in Kwangtung. He was formally invited to do so on October 6th by the anti-Bolshevik Association in the South, and his acceptance was given in a reply to that organisation which has appeared in Chinese press.

General Ngai Bong-ping was born in Kwangtung, but received his military education in Japan, where his father is a merchant. General Ngai, like General Chan Kwing-ming, was originally a Kuomintang leader. He participated in the First Revolution and for a number of years, afterward occupied important positions in the Canton Government. He took part in ousting from power in Canton General Lung Chai-kwang and later General Mu Yung-hsin.

FOOTBALL FORECASTS.

Date for Claims.

To-morrow is the last day for claims to the prize offered in our last week's Football Forecast Competition.

The award will be announced on Friday. A new coupon for the current week's matches appears on Page 9 to-day.

and, more recently, Generals Lau Chen-wan and Yang Hsi-min, non-Cantonese militarists.

General Ngai's part in the "anti-Red" movement is not, it is said, against the Kuomintang, but a direct attack, by publicity and by force, if necessary, against the extremists within the Party. The movement aims at the ousting of Russians from Canton.

"Anti-Red" propagandists in South China are saying that General Tang Seng-chi and General Liu Tso-lung, formerly Northern militarists but now with the Kuomintang Army, after having deserted the ranks of Marshal Wu Pei-fu, are untrustworthy as far as their loyalty to the Kuomintang is concerned. According to the "anti-Reds," some of the Northerners who have recently sold themselves to the South have taken hold of the situation at the front and are following a policy not wholly complying with the desire of the party administrators in Canton.

The inauguration of the "anti-Red" military movement in Kwangtung is said to have support of some of the older leaders of the Kuomintang now resident in Shanghai, besides the whole-hearted sympathy of Marshal Wu Pei-fu, Marshal Sun Chuan-fang, and other military commanders in North and Central China.

SOVIET CONDEMNED.

AMERICAN LABOURERS' STRONG ATTITUDE.

Detroit, Oct. 12.

The Convention of the American Federation of Labour has denounced the Soviet regime in the strongest possible terms, and described it as an assassin standing over the prostrate body of Freedom. It has renewed its pledge to give no quarter to Soviet Russia and endorsed President Coolidge's standpoint that American principles are not to be bartered. The resolution decried the Soviet regime as "the most unscrupulous, most anti-Social, and most menacing institution in the world to-day"—Reuter.

MALARIA WAR.

BIG SCHEME FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

EFFECTIVE ANTIDOTE.

Vice-Governor Gilmore of the Philippines, has announced that the Bureau of Health is soon to launch an extensive and vigorous campaign for the control of malarial diseases in the islands. Such a campaign has been decided upon following the discovery of Paris green as a cheap larvicide, the result of four years of experimental work by the Rockefeller Foundation in co-operation with the Bureau of Health.

A BIG VOTE.

The legislature already has been asked to appropriate Pesos 100,000 to prosecute an effective campaign in all localities which are most likely to need control work. Portions of the Pesos 25,000 appropriated last year by the legislature for investigation still are available for experiments this year, it was declared.

Realising that Pesos 100,000 is barely sufficient to push the intended campaign in a few sections, health officials plan to require provincial and municipal as well as private entities to bear half of the expenses where insular health aid is sought in exterminating insects. Co-operation would be the basis of the campaign, it was pointed out. The Bureau of Health would extend aid in the control of malaria and consequently in pest extermination on the offer of local officials and corporation or private entities, to shoulder part of the expenses.

PARIS GREEN SUCCESSFUL.

In a report to the department of public instruction, Mr. Jerome J. Melendez, Philippine representative of the Rockefeller Foundation, discloses that Paris green, a cheap poisonous powder, may be used effectively as a mosquito larvicide. The Rockefeller Foundation since 1922 has been conducting experiment and demonstration work in malaria control in Pangasinan, Laguna and Rizal, and other localities. It has been ascertained by means of blood measurements that the control work has been successful.

Malaria mosquitoes, the report shows, breed in running streams and rivers almost as much as in standing bodies of water. Sanitary engineers and inspectors have been employed in the work. The Bureau of Health also has conducted independent demonstration work recently in Palawan, it was learned, and indications there were that Paris green is a successful larvicide.

WORK AIDED.

Perhaps the best evidence of the efficiency of control work was demonstrated in Novaliches when labourers working in the Metropolitan Water project were enabled to continue their work by the extermination of mosquito larvae by means of Paris green. The same results have been obtained in several sugar centrals.

The Rockefeller Foundation bore all the expenditures incurred in the demonstration work for two years, amounting to Pesos 40,000. In co-operation, the Philippine legislature appropriated various sums. Last year it set aside Pesos 25,000. This year it is expected to allot to the Bureau of Health the Pesos 100,000 requested to reduce to lowest possible limits the ravages of malaria.

The P. and O. liner Morea, which left Shanghai yesterday at 4.30 p.m., is due here on Friday at 7 a.m.

ANTI-BRITISH MOVE IN HUNAN.

PROPERTY & EMPLOYEES INTERFERED WITH.

TROOPS ON THE MOVE.

A naval wireless message from Hankow, dated yesterday, states that the local situation is unchanged.

Anti-British agitation is, however, reported at Chang Teh, in Hunan, where the property and employees of some British firms have been interfered with.

The naval message further states that two British merchant vessels arrived at Chungking without interference, and that movements of troops down the river from Wansien and Ichang, and on the river from Kluikiang, have been observed.

THE FUKIEN FRONT.

From the Fukien frontier, it is reported that the activities which were noticeable a week ago have slackened somewhat. Whether this is due to the news of the capitulation of Wuchang and the absence of further news from the Kiangsi battle front, or to the non-arrival of the expected men-of-war at Amoy for the purpose of co-operating with the Fukien units in their intended attack on Kwangtung, it is at present difficult to say.

Judging from the appearance of the troops that have arrived to reinforce Chow Yum-yan's armies, it would seem that they would hardly be a match for the disciplined and well-armed forces under General Ho Ying-yun.

A liberal estimate says there are about 40,000 troops in the South-western part of Fukien.

YANG SEN'S POST.

A Kuomintang bulletin announces the creation of the 20th Army Corps and the appointment of General Yang Sen, who caused the Wansien incident, as General Officer Commanding. It is said that the Commander-in-Chief has ordered him to attack General Lu Chin-shan who is still a menace to Ichang.

NEW BUSES.

SATISFACTORY TRIAL RUN.

One of the two new blue buses imported by the Hongkong Hotel Company for their Repulse Bay service underwent its first official trial under Traffic Department officials this morning. With Sergeant Mason at the wheel, the vehicle was taken out for a short spin from the Central Police Station and it successfully stood the rigid test that was imposed on it. Very favourable comment was passed on the braking system which was tried over the most difficult gradients of the route.

SERIOUS CHARGE.

BANK CLERK IN TROUBLE.

A clerk of the Banque de l'Indochine, named E. V. Hyndman, was charged before Major C. Willson, at the Central Police Court this morning, with embezzlement.

Mr. L. D. Turner, who appeared to prosecute, applied for a week's remand, stating that this was for the purpose of adding further charges of a similar nature.

Mr. Leo d'Almada appeared for the defence, and the case was formally remanded for a week, defendant being allowed bail in the sum of $6,000.

BANNED SWEEP.

MR. HAYTOR SUE BY PRINTERS.

DEFENDANT SUCCEEDS ON MAIN ISSUE.

"LAUDABLE OBJECT?"

A sweepstake which was stopped by the police was mentioned in a claim which was heard before Justice Wood, in the Summary Court this morning. The plaintiffs were the Yue Shing firm, printers, of 47, Queen's Road, Central, and they sued Mr. Frank Haytor, otherwise known as E. Broadberry, assistant at Messrs. Wm. Powell, Ltd., for $569.15, being the balance for goods sold, work done, and materials supplied.

Mr. Leo d'Almada was for the plaintiffs, and Mr. L. D. Turner defended.

In outlining the case, Mr. d'Almada said the plaintiffs had carried on business for over forty years, and they had been printers for some very well-known firms and institutions in the Colony. He understood that the defendant, Mr. Broadberry, was a tailor in the employ of Messrs. Powell's, and on previous occasions had been connected with the Turf under the name of Mr. Frank Haytor as a bookmaker. That was why the defendant had two names, and he was not suggesting any impropriety as to that.

LAUDABLE SCHEME.

Sometime in the month of June, a gentleman named Mr. Wheelton, who, he believed, was employed in the P.W.D., together with the defendant conceived the brilliant and laudable idea of starting a sweepstake for the purpose of benefitting the Hongkong Benevolent Society and the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, two very well-known institutions. In connection with that, Mr. Wheelton approached the plaintiffs and discussed matters with the manager of the plaintiff firm for the purpose of printing 50,000 sweepstake tickets, in connection with the English St. Leger, to be run on September 8th.

50,000 TICKETS.

The first arrangement was made by Mr. Wheelton, who visited the plaintiffs' premises in Queen's Road Central, and said he wanted something like 50,000 sweepstake tickets printed, and he wanted to know how much they would cost. He believed that the next day Mr. Wheelton again visited the office with certain proofs of the tickets, which were in the writing of either Mr. Wheelton or the defendant. There were certain endorsements also in their handwriting, and his Lordship would notice that that was the ticket which they intended to print.

On the production of that draft, terms were arranged, and, according to the plaintiffs, they were to print 50,000 tickets, and the price was to be $750. According to the plaintiffs, the defendant wanted the tickets as quickly as possible, to enable them not only to sell them in Hongkong, but to distribute them in Shanghai and other places.

THE PRIZES.

His Lordship would notice with regard to the tickets that they stated the first prize would be $40,000, the second $15,000, and the third $7,000, and it was significant that on the back it was indicated that there were 50,000 tickets at $2 each. His Lordship would see from the tickets themselves that 50,000 of them were certainly required, and they were to consist of ten series, from the letter "A" to the letter "J" inclusive.

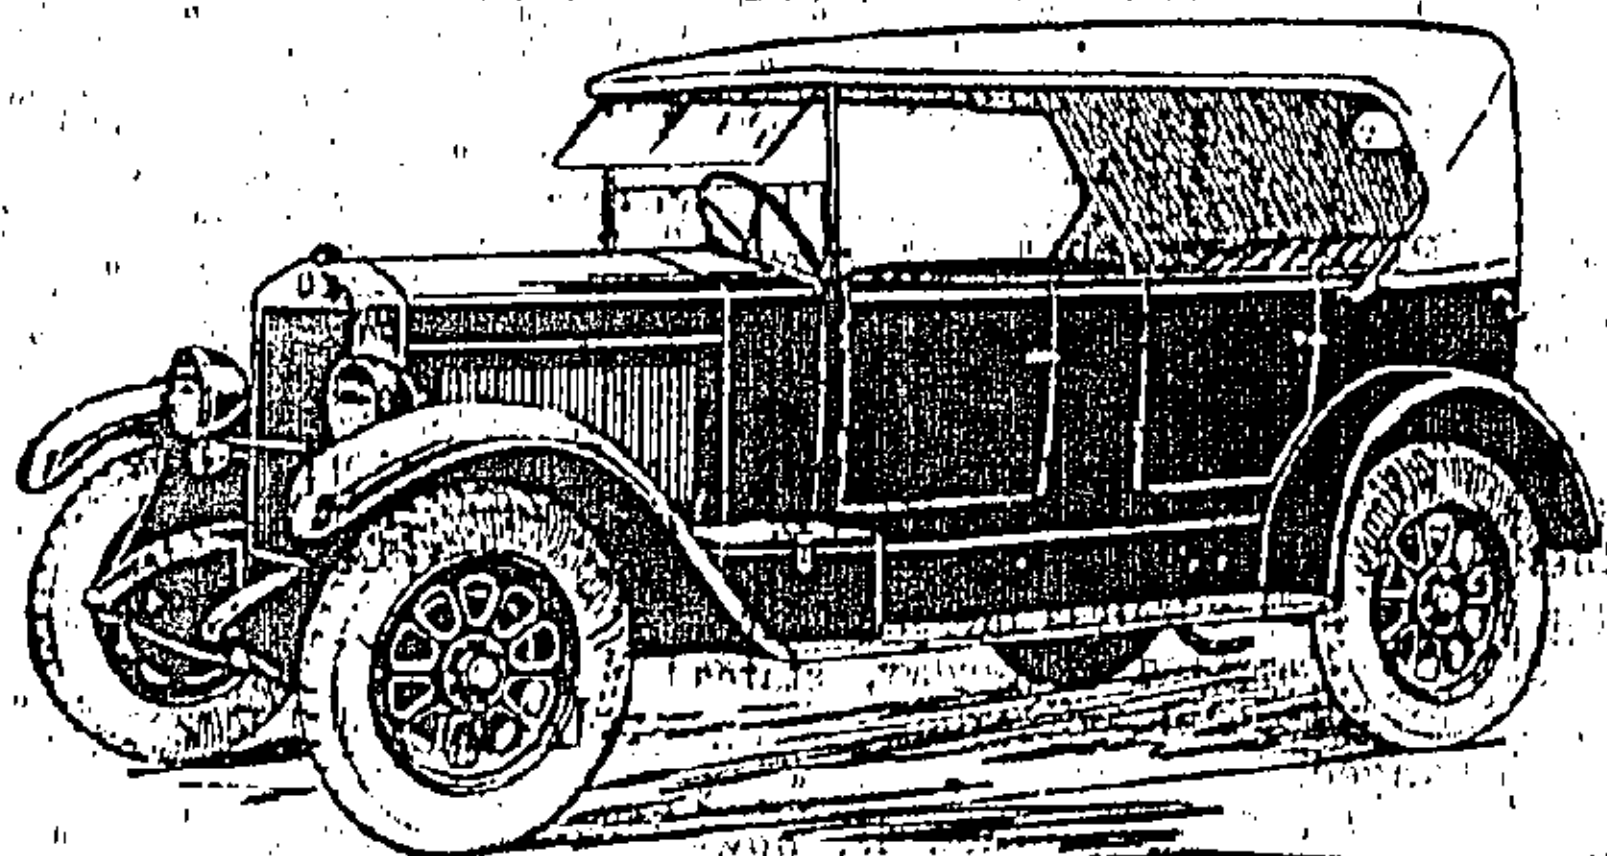

The printer's proof was submitted to the defendant, and was approved and there was a suggestion made by either Mr. Wheelton (Continued on Page 11.)

VERANDAH CRASH.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT IN KOWLOON.

Although still under construction, the verandahs of the top floors of a block of houses at the junction of Argyle Street and Reclamation Street, collapsed yesterday afternoon, apparently under the strain of a quantity of building material which had been left on the verandah in preparation for the tiling of the roof.

The accident was attended with fatal results, one woman being killed and a man and boy injured. A fourth managed to extricate himself unhurt. The injured were sent to the Kowloon Hospital for treatment, the dead body of the woman being taken to the Kowloon mortuary.

The block concerned, consisting of three four storeyed Chinese tenement houses, was started some two years ago, but is just nearing completion, the contractor having ceased work in March last year.

With the exception of the roofs of the three houses, all the work had been completed, and it appears that at the beginning of last year, when the contractor stopped work on the premises, a large quantity of tiles for the roofs as well as sand and other building material was placed on the upper verandahs in preparation for the roofing.

Weakened.

With almost two years' exposure to the air and rain, the building was weakened, although there were no noticeable signs of any danger. The weight of the material on the upper verandahs is believed to have been the prime cause of the mishap.

Several of the contractor's workmen were still on the premises at the time despite the fact that work had ceased. Some were in the front part of the building at the time of the collapse, and were struck by the falling debris. Altogether four persons were buried by masonry, and of these an elderly woman was later extricated by firemen, but life was then extinct.

Two others, a man and a boy of six, were rescued, while a sixteen year old Chinese youth managed to scramble out unaided. He was the only one of the four to escape without injury. The man was suffering from wounds to his body and face, while the little boy was only slightly injured.

It was reported to the rescuers that there was still another woman buried under the debris, but she was not found even after some hours' work. In view of the dangerous condition of the walls further efforts were abandoned while they were shored up. Later excavation, however, failed to reveal the woman who was alleged to be missing.

THE RIVER RESUMPTION.

QUESTION OF NAVAL PATROLS.

The Hongkong Chinese Chamber of Commerce held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which the most important item for discussion was the suggested renewal of the British anti-piracy naval patrol, in view of the resumption of shipping services to the Canton delta.

The majority of Chinese merchants, it was announced, favour the renewal of this patrol system, and their suggestion is being submitted by the Chamber to the proper authorities.

LOCAL BUSES.

HONGKONG HOTEL GARAGE
ADD TO FLEET.

In order to cope even more successfully with the ever increasing traffic to Repulse Bay, the Hongkong Hotel Garage have added two additional buses to their fleet. These, which will be put on the run either to-day or to-morrow, are strikingly different from the existing cars and provide the last word in luxury travel.

The new buses seat twelve passengers, and the comfortable, individual seats, wide aisle and spacious windows make them ideal for local conditions. In reality the buses are like big passenger cars.

Each passenger has a bucket seat, the cushions and backs being built on Barber double deck springs and amply padded and upholstered in brown leather. There is no overhang as in the case of the existing buses and the interior decorations leave nothing to be desired.

They are Miller built models on Studebaker chassis and have been pronounced by many as the most comfortable coach they have ever ridden in.

Although the Garage now has two additional buses at its disposal it is not intended to speed up any of the existing bus services. When one or two of the older fleet have been in the garage for repair some little difficulty has been found in the past in maintaining an efficient service on all routes.

This difficulty has now been removed, and travellers to Repulse Bay will travel in even greater comfort than they did previously.

THE SAFETY MEN.

DEPUTATION TO LABOUR
MINISTRY.

London, Oct. 12.

While the miners in the respective districts are considering the proposal of the Miners' Federation conference to call out the safety men from the pits, the latter themselves are taking action.

A deputation of the Federation of Colliery Deputies and Firemen's Associations, representing thirty thousand safety men, has been received at the Ministry of Labour and discussed the situation with Sir A. Steel Maitland, to whom they submitted their position. The deputies refused unemployment benefit during the stoppage.

Simultaneously the national executive of this federation met and urged that the time had come to reach a settlement. It is understood the federation adheres to its policy of advising the safety men to remain at work.—Reuter.

BOYCOTT SPREADING.

STIFFENING ALONG THE UPPER YANGTZE.

Shanghai, Oct. 12.

A message from Hankow dated the 11th says that telegrams to local firms report that the Anti-British boycott is decidedly stiffening along the upper Yangtze and foreigners are advised not to proceed beyond Ichang as a fresh outburst of anti-foreign feeling has started at Chungking. In the meanwhile it is reported from Cheungtu that the women and children are preparing to evacuate.—Reuter.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN ARCHIBALD,
JUNIOR.

The death is reported in Hankow, from heart failure, of Mr. John Archibald, Jr., the managing director of the C. C. Post, at the age of 36. The end came almost unexpectedly, for though he had been ill for some time past his recovery was apparently assured.

Mr. Archibald was born in Hankow in 1890 and educated in Scotland, the home of his parents. He returned to Hankow with his parents where he joined with his father and brother in establishing the C. C. Post, of which he became managing director.

During the Great War he served at the front as a private in the ranks. He was dangerously wounded in 1916 and was sent to England, from where, after a slow recovery, he returned to Hankow. He was a member of the Hankow British Volunteer Corps and of the Fire Brigade, and loyally furthered every endeavour for the benefit of the Hankow community.

"HOW IS YOUR TONGUE?"

asks the doctor when you complain of feeling out of sorts, for most often temporary indispositions are due to a disordered condition of the digestive tract, and a coated tongue tells the story. If your tongue is yellow and furred, if you are constipated, liverish, bilious; have sick headaches, flatulence, ill-smelling breath, try a little dose of Pinkettes to-night; you'll feel ever so much better in the morning.

Chemists everywhere sell Pinkettes, the daily little laxative liver regulators, also post free, 60 cents the vial, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60, Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

BANNED SWEEP.

don or the defendant that they would want 1000 on a certain Tuesday, divided into ten books, and the balance would be required by the following Saturday. His client then proceeded with the printing, and delivered a certain quantity as they were wanted. According to the arrangement, the defendant was to go to the plaintiffs from time to time, and receive whatever books were wanted. The tickets were ready by a certain day and some were delivered. Mr. d'Almada mentioned the sum of $44.15, which he said had been paid into Court by the defendant. He pointed out that that sum was for various articles, admitted by the defendant, which sum, however, had nothing to do with the printing of the tickets. In respect of the tickets they had received the sum of $225 which had been paid on account previously, and they were now claiming the balance of $509.15.

SWEEP STOPPED.

Mr. d'Almada thought he should also mention that it was very unfortunate that in the course of the sweepstake being run, the police intervened and prohibited its further progress, so that the defendant was unable to proceed with it. The defendant was brought up, he believed, before Mr. Nihill and was fined $25 for running the sweepstake.

Here Mr. Turner intervened, and remarked that he must object. He did not think that Mr. d'Almada would have evidence as to that.

Mr. d'Almada replied that in that case he would withdraw, but his remarks were intended for the benefit of the defendant. They had to stop printing as the defendant told his client that they would not require the tickets, as the sweepstake had been stopped.

Continuing, Mr. d'Almada said he had heard that the defence would be that the arrangement was not in accordance with his (Mr. d'Almada's) client's instructions, but that they were to be printed in batches of 5,000, the price for each batch being $75. His Lordship would see that in that case, notwithstanding the fact that they required 50,000 tickets, they would pay $75 for each 5,000. If the defendants had accepted the total number of tickets, that would amount to $750.

HOW MANY.

His Lordship suggested that the point was whether the arrangement was for 50,000 tickets, or 5,000 at a time.

Mr. d'Almada replied that was really what it amounted to. He added that his clients really sympathized with the defendant, because he was not able to carry on with his laudable object, but, of course, his clients felt that they must have their money.

His Lordship—I notice the laudable object was only to get 10 per cent. of the proceeds.

Mr. Turner suggested that that was rather usual, and his Lordship replied with a smile that the point was not in dispute.

After evidence had been given by Mr. A. J. Wheelton, and the defendant, Mr. Turner, addressing the Court, suggested that the printer intelligently, possibly, anticipated that the sweepstake would be a success.

His Lordship remarked he did not think so. He believed the printer was carrying out an order.

A MISUNDERSTANDING?

Continuing, Mr. Turner said on the one side the transaction was carried out in "pidgin" English and on the other in ordinary English. He thought his Lordship would have no difficulty in finding that there was possibly a misunderstanding on the printer's part, or that he anticipated the need for the whole supply.

Mr. d'Almada submitted that the printer was not the kind of man to print 50,000 tickets if he was only ordered to print 5,000.

His Lordship remarked that he was quite prepared to put it on record that in his opinion the printer was acting, as he believed, under instructions.

Mr. d'Almada asked his Lordship to accept the statement of the plaintiff, as, according to the tickets themselves, there must necessarily be 50,000 of them.

THE JUDGMENT.

His Lordship, in summing up, said he thought the plaintiffs had acted bona fide throughout. A suggestion that the tickets, or a portion were printed after the sweepstake was forbidden seemed to him to have no foundation what-

JAVA UNREST.

COMMUNIST LEADERS ARRESTED.

WOMEN PARTICIPATE.

The Japanese press has of late been registering with almost un-falling regularity the activities of the amateur Lenin and Trotskies among the indigenous population.

Fortunately, these activities are only sporadic and have as often as not been nipped in the bud by the vigilant police authorities.

Still, they are a sign of the times, and not to be contemptuously ignored as such.

In several instances, however, it would appear that the real agitators invariably have an axe of their own to grind.

LEADERS ARRESTED.

In the first half of September, the Batavia police succeeded in arresting some 28 self-styled Communist leaders, and after minute official investigation it was ascertained that this was not a case for prosecution on the grounds of political agitation against the government, but merely one of extortion and cheating of the natives of the districts where these communists carried on their activities.

The investigation revealed that the 28 accused had sold membership cards to their fellow inhabitants of the villages in the district while at the same time holding out hopes of a glorious and easy life in the future.

VILLAGERS DUPED.

The victims were at the same time furthermore informed that a rebellion would arise during the full or Pasir Gambir, and that the communists would be victorious in that both the police and the army were on their side.

Those who were not in possession of membership cards after the "victory" would lose all the advantages gained by those who were members.

In this way several thousands of ignorant villagers were duped. Of rather a different nature, however, are the recent agitation and activities reported from Padang.

A village headman named Datok Sari is believed to have been murdered by native communists who, it is rumoured, had formed a plot to exterminate all the native chiefs and officials in the sub-district of Kamang, on the west coast of Sumatra, just as was the case discovered in regard to European officials and inhabitants in Rantan.

On the disappearance of the native headman in question, two brigades were despatched from Fort de Kock thither. Scores of suspects were arrested and a house to house search was made.

Later the decomposed corpse of the unfortunate headman was found buried on the border of a brook in the Kamang sub-district near Batoe Djolong, one of the arrested communists having led the search party to the spot.

COMMUNISTS ARRESTED.

A later report states that in all forty native communists have been arrested, and fourteen rifles and a Browning revolver confiscated. The ring-leader has been arrested and remanded at Fort de Kock.

It would appear that women too are participating in these activities.

A Sumatra journal of recent date reports that a message has been received at Medan regarding unrest and disorder at Sinabang (near the west coast of Atcheen).

It is supposed that this is due to the formation of robber gangs, such as was the case some while ago at Poeloe Tello.

The chief of the armed police at Koetaradja has left for Sinabang aboard the government steamer Bullatrix.

ever. He accepted the plaintiff's evidence that he supposed he had a contract for 50,000 tickets at $75 per unit of 5,000, and he printed them as far as he could in the interests of his customer. There might have been a misunderstanding when the verbal contract was entered into, and he found that on the main issue the defendant succeeded. Judgment would be for plaintiffs for $44.15, which money had already been paid into Court, and costs up to payment of that amount, the subsequent costs to be paid by the defendant.

TRAM PROSECUTION.

TWO MEN WITH ONE TICKET.

Two Chinese were summoned before Mr. R. E. Lindsell, at the Central Magistracy this morning, in respect of the alleged misuse of a monthly tramway passenger ticket. The prosecution was taken out at the instance of Mr. Gillard, under the Hongkong Tramway Company's bye-laws.

The first defendant admitted using the ticket which did not bear his name. The second defendant said the ticket which belonged to him was used by the first defendant without his knowledge.

Mr. Gillard, replying to the Bench, said the case was not as represented by the defendants. On Tuesday last, the first defendant was found on a car going east. The conductor was suspicious and referred the matter to witness, who was on the car. All three then adjourned to the Company's office where the name and address were checked and found to be correct as given by the defendant. The latter, however, admitted that the ticket was in common use by the folks of his shop, whereupon witness produced a notice showing the conditions governing the issue of monthly tickets and made it clear that the ticket was to be used only by the person whose name appeared on it. Furthermore, witness also marked the apparent age of the defendant on the ticket, before it was returned.

The following day, the same conductor found the ticket on another passenger, and, in the course of investigations carried to the shop itself, it was found that the ticket belonged to another folk who was now the second defendant in the case.

The first defendant was fined $10 on his admission, while the case against the second defendant was adjourned for further investigation into the matter. He was required to bring up the master of the shop at the resumed hearing.

RUSSO-ASIATIC BANK.

APPLICATION FOR WINDING UP.

In making an application for the winding up of the Russo-Asiatic Bank before Mr. Justice Wood, in the Court of Original Jurisdiction this morning, Mr. H. G. Sheldon asked for an adjournment.

Mr. Sheldon, (instructed by Messrs. Johnston, Stokes, and Master), said he was representing a petitioning creditor, Mr. Au Fung-chau. It was an application on the petition of the petitioning creditor for the winding up by the Court of the Russo-Asiatic Bank, which was a company having its registered office in the Colony. The petition was presented on September 28th, and the hearing was fixed for today. Owing to certain documents not being available to lay before his Lordship, his application was for an adjournment.

Mr. D. W. Tratman, the Official Receiver, said there was no objection.

His Lordship adjourned the application for fourteen days, and decided that the usual advertisement should not be altered.

In conclusion, Mr. Sheldon asked his Lordship to note that there was no opposition at this morning's hearing.

THE OPERA.

PRESENTATION OF "MIGNON."

The very cordial and hearty reception given by last night's audience at the Theatre Royal to the principals of the Italian Grand Opera Company for their work in the presentation of "Mignon" testified to the excellence of the production. The beautiful opera, containing as it does some very well-known numbers, was given with pleasing charm, the chorus, and orchestra, as well as the leading performers, again demonstrating that the Company is well above the average visiting Hong-kong.

The part of Filina was admirably sustained by Mlle. Henkina, whose voice is of pleasing quality. The name role was taken by Mlle. Ciampaglia with great success, and a special word of praise should also be given to Signor Mauceri, who took the part of Lothario, and Signor Bellotti, who represented Wilhelm.

So excellent was the whole rendition that it is difficult to pick out any item for special mention.

STRIKE TROUBLE.

ALLEGED PICKETS AT THE MAGISTRACY.

The suggestion that the complainants lost their own cargo of vegetables and accused the defendants who had brought their cargo down to Hongkong with stealing it was made by Mr. D. McCallum at the Central Magistracy yesterday in the alleged picket case.

Two men, whom the prosecution allege to be strike pickets, are charged with being in possession of vegetables stolen at San Hui, Po On district, Chinese territory on September 25. The prosecution suggests that the goods were stolen by strike pickets and brought down to Hongkong.

At yesterday's hearing one of the complainants who gave evidence at the previous hearing was cross-examined by Mr. D. McCallum, defending. Witness said he had lived in the village all his life. One of the defendants had also spent his life in the village, but the other was born in Hongkong.

No Picket Activity.

Asked what occupation the first defendant followed, witness said he was formerly a farmer but now kept company with the pickets. Mr. McCallum: You are a man of extraordinary little consequence in your village, aren't you?—I am a farmer in a small way.

During the whole of the time the strike and boycott has been in operation has your village suffered at all?—No.

Have there ever been any pickets in your village at all?—I can't say. They might have been there while I was working in the fields.

And throughout the strike you have been sending your produce to Hongkong because it offers the best market open to you?—Yes.

"A Proper Soldier Too."

It has been your habit to sell produce to farmers who have formed themselves into a group to bring it down to Hongkong?—Yes.

Who is Commander Wong Lok?—He is in the country now.

Is there a magistrate called Luk Kwok Hang?—Yes.

And are you a soldier under Wong Lok?—I am not a soldier now. I gave it up during the fifth moon this year and returned to the village to do farming again.

You have made nothing but a nuisance of yourself ever since?—You can investigate. I was a soldier and a proper soldier too.

Why did you give up your soldiering?—Because I couldn't make a living for my family.

Not even by looting? (Witness did not reply.)

Have you been going round the village and demanding money?—No.

Pickets Attack Boat.

Now if there has never been any trouble with the pickets why should you load your boat at night?—Because if you load in daylight the pickets would take the taros.

Do you say that all the farmers in your district loaded boats at night to overcome the pickets?—It all depends on circumstances.

Have the pickets ever attacked the village and taken the cargoes?—I have never heard of such a case.

The second complainant also gave evidence bearing out that of the previous witness. He said that when the alleged pickets attacked the boat eleven of them were armed. He recognised the defendants among the men.

Regarding the later details of the case he said he came to Hongkong and while walking on the Praya saw first defendant on a boat and had him arrested.

Cross-examined, witness denied that he had had trouble with the second defendant over ancestral funds. He also denied the suggestion that he knew the defendants loaded a cargo in the village and that it was brought down safely to Hongkong while his was lost and that he claimed the one in Hongkong as his own.

The case was adjourned.

BRITISH TRADE.

IMPROVED IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

London, Oct. 12.

The Board of Trade returns for September show imports at £101,724,841 and exports £50,680,003, increases respectively of 2587,051 and 2893,259 compared with August.—Reuter.

TONNAGE FALL.

MARKED EFFECT OF COAL STRIKE.

London, Oct. 12.

The coal strike has caused a big reduction in tonnage on the ships.

According to Lloyd's the tonnage constructing in Britain and Ireland on September 30 was 774,797, which is 66,541 less than at the end of June and 234,006 less than a twelvemonth ago.

Work was suspended on September 30 on 107,498 tons.

The totals are the lowest recorded since June, 1909.—Reuter.

LABOUR CONFERENCE.

MINERS SUPPORTED.

London, Oct. 12.

Despite opposition by Mr. MacDonald and Mr. J. H. Thomas, who pointed out the impracticability, the Labour Party Conference at Margate carried by a majority of over three million a resolution recognising the magnificent resistance of the miners, urging nationalisation of the mines, condemning the coal mines which extend the working day, and generally giving effect to the South Wales drastic resolution for withdrawal of the safety men.—Reuter.

CHILD WELFARE.

ESTABLISHED THEORIES IN THE MELTING POT.

Several well-established theories in regard to child welfare are thrown into the melting-pot by a report issued by the Medical Research Council on the Poverty, Nutrition, and Growth (H.M. Stationery Office).

This is admittedly a pioneer investigation, and the conclusions arrived at cover a wide field.

While (the Report points out) there is some retardation in the gain of weight, and less as regards gain in height, in town infants below 18 months, as compared with country infants, from that age the town child seems to grow if anything more rapidly than the country child, so that after 18 months the curves of the two seem fairly parallel.

There is some indication that the small size of the town child is, in part at least, an inborn characteristic.

No clear indication has been found that the nutrition of the child is directly associated with the income of the family.

The correlations of weight and height to size of family, and to air-space per person, are all small and many of them insignificant.

The fact that difference in size of the town and country child is not determined by the amount of milk consumed, is indicated by the consumption by the well-grown child of rural miners, which is as small as that of slum families.

Slum Environment.

The correlation of natural and artificial feeding with the weight of the child, it is further indicated, shows that such is manifest in infants below eight or nine months, but after this it is absent, and after ten months the child that has not been breast-fed is found to be as heavy as the one which has had that advantage.

The Report lays it down that overcrowded dwellings and an inferior type of mother tend to go hand in hand; that the results of various statistics show that the population is being recruited mainly from the improvement type of parents.

"It is thus" (the Report states) "a question whether the larger families are the product primarily of inefficient parents, or whether the greater number of children leads to a less degree of care being shown for the well-being of the offspring."

"The results of our investigation (it is contended) indicate that a position must be taken up removed, on the one hand, from that of the sociological or political theorist, who believes that a simple increase of income would remedy all evils, and from that of the thorough-going antagonist on the other. The evidence supports neither extreme, but seems to indicate that the current teaching gives too much, rather, factors which, theoretically at least, it might be possible to remedy by economic adjustments."

military struggle there is not over yet. And even if it were over, a long period of struggle between the Revolution and counter-Revolution is inevitable, therefore the extension of the anti-imperialist front throughout the country cannot be considered as a question of the nearest future. We have first a long period of preparation before the active anti-imperialist front can be extended.

"A NEW ERA."

From the Strike Committee's declaration we take the following:—"From now a new era begins, an era which makes it possible for us to strengthen the union of the peasants, workers, merchants, students, and soldiers of the whole country for the struggle against imperialism. For this reason, we are willing, and we think it necessary, to share with the people of the whole country, the great responsibility of the active anti-imperialist struggle which we have carried on ourselves for 15 months. We believe that if this great task be undertaken jointly by the people of the whole country, instead of by our force alone, the blow inflicted upon the British imperialist will be very much greater than the result of our movement during the past fifteen months. Therefore we now decide to withdraw voluntarily all our pickets from various ports at 12 noon on October 10, and consider it more advisable to co-operate with the comrades of various classes in conducting a new movement against our enemies.

"Fellow-countrymen! Let us repeat it once more! Our new policy is merely this: the old form of boycott and blockade by means of pickets is changed to a new one in which all classes will unanimously use the economic weapon against our enemies. In the new revolutionary environment we must adopt this new policy. Our fellow-countrymen at home and abroad will surely be able to understand the significance of this policy and will support and help the movement more strenuously. But, fellow-countrymen, hereafter your duty will be heavier! We

Protest By Japan.

London, Oct. 12.

The Japanese protest to China with regard to the attempt by Canton to levy surtaxes on foreign goods, not only on the ground of her trade interests but also because she does not intend recognising the divided sovereignty of China, is the subject of a Daily Telegraph leader, which says that no Western people can encourage that sub-division, if Japan opposes it.

The paper considers it would be a wise policy for Britain to imitate the action of Japan, and refuse to acknowledge the sovereignty of Southern China.—Reuter.

have been struggling energetically for fifteen months and have been suffering a great deal. But we do not complain of our sufferings. We swear to follow our patriotic fellow-countrymen in the fight against imperialism to our very last, until our nation is emancipated."

On the 9th. and 10th. inst. Canton Government officials and prominent members of the Kuomintang devoted themselves to BAND.

ORGANISED BY THE POLICE.

We (says the Straits Times) hear excellent accounts of the progress of the newly-created Police band, towards the maintenance of which the Municipal body make a substantial contribution in return for such public services as the band may render. The organisation of a band in the Straits presents many difficulties, the principal of them being the absence of local material; and it has been no easy task, we believe, to recruit the bandmen in India, where the best material is averse to leaving its native shores. However, the bandmen are here and they are undergoing regular practice under Mr. Minns, whose services the Police were fortunate enough to secure when he relinquished the bandmastership of the Royal Sussex Regiment. We understand that he is very pleased with the progress the band are making and it is hoped that early next year the public will have the opportunity of hearing them. A question that must arise in the near future is the provision of a public bandstand, and it is one that will require very careful consideration. A bandstand is a necessity if the band is to do itself justice, but the question of a site presents a problem not easy to dispose of. The Botanic Gardens have been mentioned, but they are far distant from the mass of the population to whom it is desired to cater, and there are objections, also to the padding where an enclosure with seating accommodation would be out of the question. However, it is something to possess a band and no doubt a solution of the bandstand problem will follow in due course.

PRINCE AT BOY SCOUT DISPLAY.

H. R. H. the Prince of Wales is here seen at a Boy Scout display at Portsmouth, shaking hands with the local Scoutmaster.
